FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The historic San Francisco merry-go-round, located at the Mary Connolly Childrens Playground in Golden Gate Park, will reopen Saturday, May 27.

It has been closed for the past two months for much needed renovation including painting and window repair.

The hours of operation are Wednesdays through Sundays, 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Cost is 15¢ for children and 25¢ for adults.

The carousel was purchased by the old Park Commission from the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in 1939 and was moved to its present location in 1941. Designed by Hershell Spillane, it is one of two remaining carousels left in San Francisco.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Neighborhood residents are invited to review preliminary renovation plans for Buena Vista Park. The meeting will be held at Dudley Stone Elementary School, 1351 Haight Street, Tuesday, June 13, at 7:30 p.m.

This will be the fourth public meeting concerning renovation plans for the park.

Landscape Architect, Garrett Eckbo, will review the results of the questionnaire completed by over 300 residents. In addition, Mr. Eckbo will evaluate the study on the longevity of the existing trees in the park.

Comments and suggestions from the public are welcome.

Monies for the project are from the Open Space Acquisition and Park Renovation Fund. A total of $2,018,000 has been allocated from the Open Space Fund in the first three years of the program for renovation of the City's parks and playgrounds.

$200,000 of this total has been recommended from the Open Space Program Fund for renovation of Buena Vista Park.

The public meeting is sponsored by the San Francisco Open Space, Park Renovation Citizens Advisory Committee, a public group consisting of twenty-three members, appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

The San Francisco Recreation and Park Department is the Administrator of the Open Space Program.
